

Don't Know What to Read?

Go with the flow to find your next favorite book!

START HERE

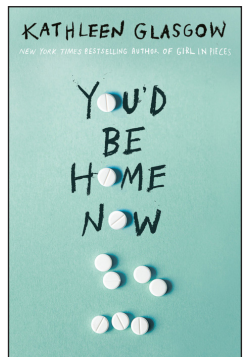

When your friend is telling you a story, you . . .

Wish they would add more details! You need all the information!

What's your go-to follow-up question?

"How do you feel?"

"Why didn't you tell me sooner?!"

Wish they would hurry up and get to the good part.

The good part is more . . .

Mysterious

Dramatic

Interrupt because something just like this happened to you!

What kind of storyteller are you?

You tell richly detailed stories. Your life could be a movie, and honestly . . . it deserves its own soundtrack.

You get to the point. You tell it like it is.
